Influencer Agreement

United Kingdom version

This agreement is between _____ (the “Brand”) and _____ (the “Creator”) for a sponsored content campaign.

1. Deliverables

_____

2. Approval

The Creator will share drafts for the Brand’s review at least 3 days before posting. The Brand may request one round of reasonable changes. The Creator keeps creative control of style and voice.

3. Disclosure

The Creator will label every post as an advert in line with the CAP Code and the ASA and CMA influencer guidance, using “Ad” or “Advert” upfront and the platform’s paid partnership tools.

4. Fee

The Brand will pay £_____, 50% on signing and 50% within 14 days after the final post is live.

5. Usage rights

The Creator owns the content and grants the Brand the following rights: _____. Paid advertising use (whitelisting or boosting) requires separate agreement and fee.

6. Exclusivity

7. Conduct

The Creator will make only truthful claims about the product, based on genuine experience, and will not post content that is unlawful, hateful or harmful to the Brand’s reputation during the campaign. The Brand may end this agreement if the Creator seriously breaches this clause.

8. Entire agreement

This agreement, together with any documents it refers to, is the entire agreement between the parties about its subject and replaces any earlier discussions, proposals or understandings about it.

9. Changes and waiver

Any change to this agreement must be in writing and signed by all parties, which may be done electronically. A failure or delay in enforcing any part of this agreement is not a waiver of that right.

10. Severability

If any part of this agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, that part will be limited to the minimum extent necessary and the rest of the agreement will remain in effect.

11. Disputes

The parties will first try in good faith to resolve any dispute through discussion, and may agree to mediation, before starting court proceedings.

12. Governing law and jurisdiction

This agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales. Each party submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales, which will have exclusive jurisdiction.

13. Electronic signatures and counterparts

This agreement may be signed electronically and in counterparts, each of which is an original and which together form one agreement. The parties agree that electronic signatures are valid and binding under the Electronic Communications Act 2000 and the UK eIDAS Regulation, and have the same effect as handwritten signatures.
